Best Practices for Preventing Claim Rejections

Reducing errors in claims is a huge part of the medical billing process. In this video, we'll introduce you to some of the most common errors you can make on a claim, where rejections occur, and how to prevent rejections. We'll show you basic settings, that if configured correctly in Kareo's desktop application, can prevent rejections from occurring.